

INDIANA UNIVERSITY

OFFICE OF THE EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT
FOR UNIVERSITY ACADEMIC AFFAIRS
Public Safety and Institutional Assurance

September 14, 2021

Mr. Mark McPhail,

Please allow this letter to serve as your notice that you may not enter on any Indiana University-owned property. You will be allowed to remove your belongings from the premises of the Indiana University consistent with specific instructions provided to you by IU personnel. This step must happen without delay, and any further entry on these premises will subject you to arrest and prosecution for criminal trespass. This notice became necessary following an Indiana University Case police department investigation (Case# 21-0173). Again, please be advised that this notice means you cannot enter on any university-owned property. If you do so, this will subject you to arrest and prosecution for criminal trespass. This no-trespass order is effective indefinitely. Please see the attached trespass document.

Sincerely,

Monte Davis
